Sub: Dr.YSR AHCT – EHS – Eligibility criteria of the EHS beneficiaries
– Communication – Reg.

Ref: G.O.Ms.No.174, dated: 01.11.2013

-o0o-

It has been observed that most of the NWHs are not counselling the beneficiaries of the EHS on their eligibility for the scheme and raising pre-auths to the beneficiaries who are not eligible under EHS. The eligibility criteria for the dependent EHS beneficiaries is mentioned below as per the G.O cited above.

The following family members are entitled to avail the Employee Health Scheme.

- i. Dependent parents (either adoptive or biological; but not both)
- ii. One legally wedded wife in case of a male employee/service pensioner.
- iii. Husband in case of a female employee/service pensioner.
- iv. Dependents of family pensioners shall also be eligible as in the case of service pensioners.

The dependency has the following meaning

- a. In case of parents, those who are dependent on the employee for their livelihood.
- b. In case of unemployed daughters, those who are unmarried or widowed or divorced or deserted.
- c. In case of unemployed sons, those who are below the age of 25 years.
- d. Disabled Children with a disability which renders them unfit for employment.

In this regard, all the network hospitals empanelled under Employees Health Scheme are hereby directed to raise the preauth as per the above eligibility criteria only. Further District Co-ordinators of the Trust are directed to instruct the Mitras and MEDCOs on the counselling of EHS beneficiaries.
